

Like spokes to the hub of a cosmic wheel, universal threads of refined truth flow in an indigenous pattern throughout various philosophies and belief systems, all ultimately leading to Source. The compilation of these immortal clues has given rise to a unique format, an alliterative, akashic alphabet, tapped from the records of inner, ether consciousness.

Vision narratives, coupled with acutely sensitive illustrations painted by a Master Artist, are infused with light and convey diverse cultures from around the world, each designed to show the graceful connection of Oneness in all.

Media news, while often important, tends to dwell on sensationalist happenings, which are frequently of a dark nature. The page windows contained within, reveal carefully crafted scenes into what is often, also going on simultaneously across continents and spheres, that is positive and for the good of mankind, but is not publicly broadcast.

It is of vital importance for protection of the collective mind, that all be made aware of this other, remarkable side of life taking place, which has tremendous value and power in its inherent goodness, with ability to counter-balance and transcend in exponential proportion, the lower energies on our planet.
