Special Thanks: Marguerite & Sam Ramonda, for making the book better with their unique insights.
Marilyn Walker, for pushing the author to make the worries crazier and more fun.
Mary Castillo, for always supporting my writing.
Noah Wardrip-Fruin, for being a patient partner with the worrywart parent.
I couldn't have done this without all of you.

For Ada and Zoe.
I can't help it...
I worry!

Mommy is a worrywart.
When I go out to play...

... she always says
'Don't swing so high,
You might fly away!'

She says if I don't wear
my coat, when it's cold
I'll freeze....

I think my nose looks good in blue. Mommy is not pleased.

Mommy is a worrywart.
You should see her face...

... when she sees me
eating mud. Boy, she's great at chase!

Mommy Worries

- ☐ Holding paws while crossing the street
- ☒ Climbing on tall things, like trees
- ☐ Eating strange plants
- ☐ Jumping down the stairs
- ☐ Using the 5 second rule
- ☒ Volcanoes and dinosaurs
- ☒ Being hit on the head by a helicopter

Does Mommy Worry Too Much?

One little Hedge thinks Mommy is a Worrywart. But does she really have anything to worry about? Other than sharks, strange creatures and space aliens, that is....
