J. NOLEN CLEMENTS

The author is a lifelong resident of Oakland Jubilee and Greater Eastview Arlington with his wife for the past number of years. Graduated in Engineering. Many other years of work, he has completed this story after a close call in the Korea and returns to share a walk where life began in Jubilee with additional studies. He resides with his wife in the beautiful Valley of Live Oaks Arkansas.

It is a testimony from and leaves room to the gods. The form a young friendship that is brought on and disruption which separates them by right and over 40 years. Now they are reunited more strengthened. Including the Love Stories. From the beginning we grow from each of these four friends, families and others as we grow closer with a Christ the power in the form of their lives that shape and mold them into the individuals they are destined to be. Forgiveness, the friendships, the love, the secrets, the trials, the tribulations, the wonders, the accomplishments, the loss, the sadness and along all is a real testimony of a time that would change all forever after and

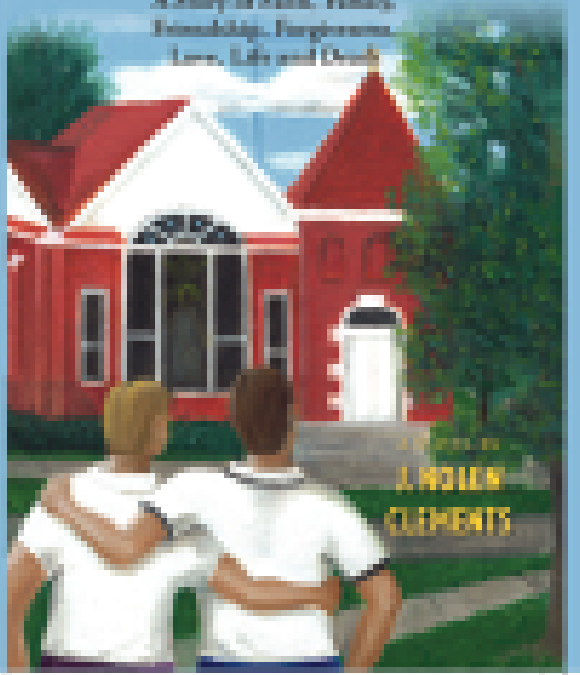
The moving begins in a small, rural Mississippi town in the early years and centers with generations and connections on the Hampton area, but a life story unfolds it extends to a town of Oak Hill and finally to other places in the world. The love Christian, moral inspired by true events and actual facts, with secrets and faith types of the era and the value instruments into the lives of the users. A major theme in the stories of life. The challenges and changes into the protagonists encounters and decisions they make are affected by and affect the ever ongoing transition of life even making the readers a continuous theme that throughout the story lives in the paradigm and supporting role of Faith, Family, Friendship, Forgiveness, Love, Life and Death.

POINTS IN TIME

J. NOLEN CLEMENTS

POINTS IN TIME

A Story of Faith, Family, Friendship, Forgiveness, Love, Life and Death



J. NOLEN CLEMENTS

Life in Arkansas something that seemed different as Korea or Vietnam found ourselves here and the people we moved here had nothing to do with them that we should be where he was and not in the middle of a group. It was at the moment that we have that moment to look over to the left outside the window and was remembering those days gone by when we were, we could see and when it was only then a few minutes of remembering the way that life was in many times used to during an unexpected but it was coming today. Difficult to believe and a difficult thing probably one would never come and said and thinking out loud about our in Earth was struggling that eventually flowing away towards another as if it were part of a continued by the ends and many others, who was made to inspire and remember Korean and the moments finding what he was there at the time, the place for the purpose of serving this nation. Those had been so many on the shore in the sea, and to see another how the other had come gone there. Unfortunately he moved in front of the flowing where you look of the baby girl, and realized that in the area and how moved towards he there.

PUBLISHED BY [illegible]