

The solitude of a calm afternoon brings to me memories of yesterday.
My doggies and I
exploring the green field, touching the yellow flowers, satisfying all our curiosities of the beauty of life and our relationship to ourselves and to our family and to our friends.

Fox Terrier
14-15" tall / 15-19 lbs.

In this reflection of wonder the mighty is equal to the humble.
Affection freely shared in a world without borders or hatred because my doggies see only each other without regard to color.

Each of us realizes in these moments our values of home and our desire to share ourselves with our neighbors in a world filled with peace, respect, tolerance, acceptance – strife abandoned to the forlorn winds.

Wirehaired Fox Terrier
