

The Adventures of a Young Mind:

Book one of an eight part series was written by Sherry Rollins, illustrated by Jeremy Rollins, and inspired by their son. The series was written in 2003, but with four children and their own business it has taken nearly ten years to complete the illustrations and layout. Finally, Jojo the Dreamer is ready for the world. Aimed at readers from pre-K to second grade, Jojo the Dreamer shares his adventures and inspires his young readers to take on the world through their imaginations and in their own lives. Book one is an exhilarating look at all the adventures that are to come as well as an introduction to the character, mind, and will of Jojo the Dreamer. Intended to be educational as well as entertaining, parents will enjoy reading along as much as their children. Please download a free copy of the eBook for your eReader or other electronic device.

Hi, my name is Jojo
and I love to dream.

This Book Belongs To:

---

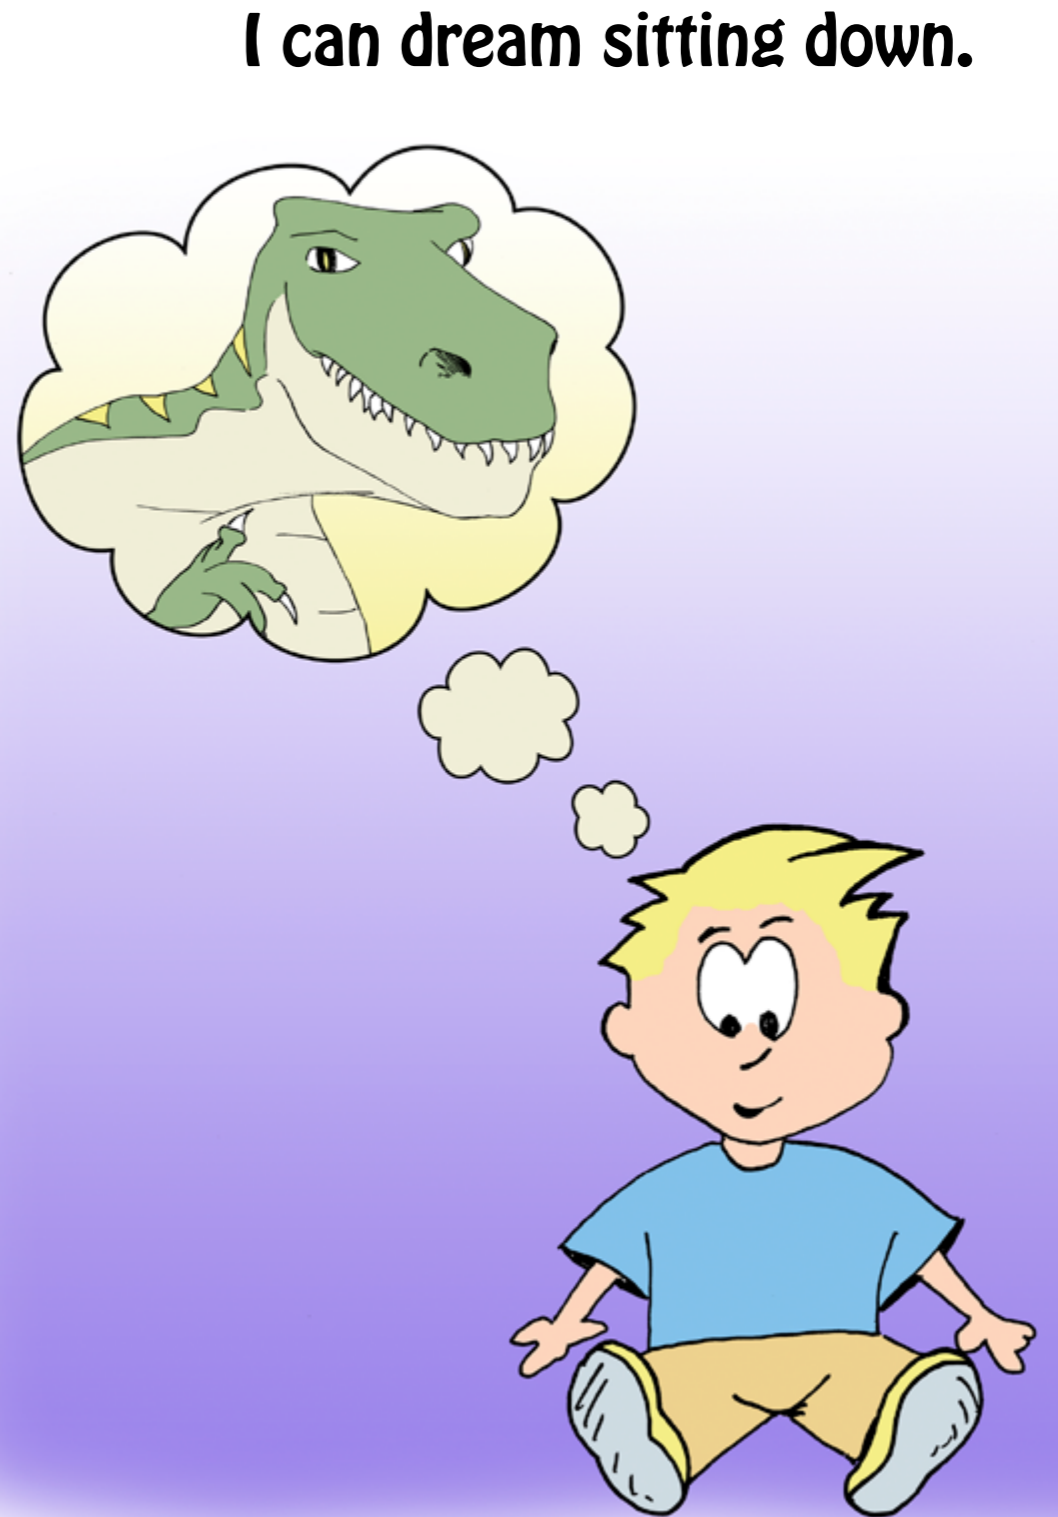

It's Your World
TAKE IT!

THIS IS TEDDY.
WE MAKE A GREAT TEAM.

I can dream standing up.

I can dream lying down on the ground.

I dream of everything
I can see and be.

I once dreamed I was a pirate
sailing the seven seas.

I had treasure chests filled with gold candy bars and jelly beans.

I once saved the world and flew through the sky!

I was even president
with Teddy by my side.

I chased a tornado
and I did not cry.

I saw the seven wonders...

and a dinasour scared of thunder.

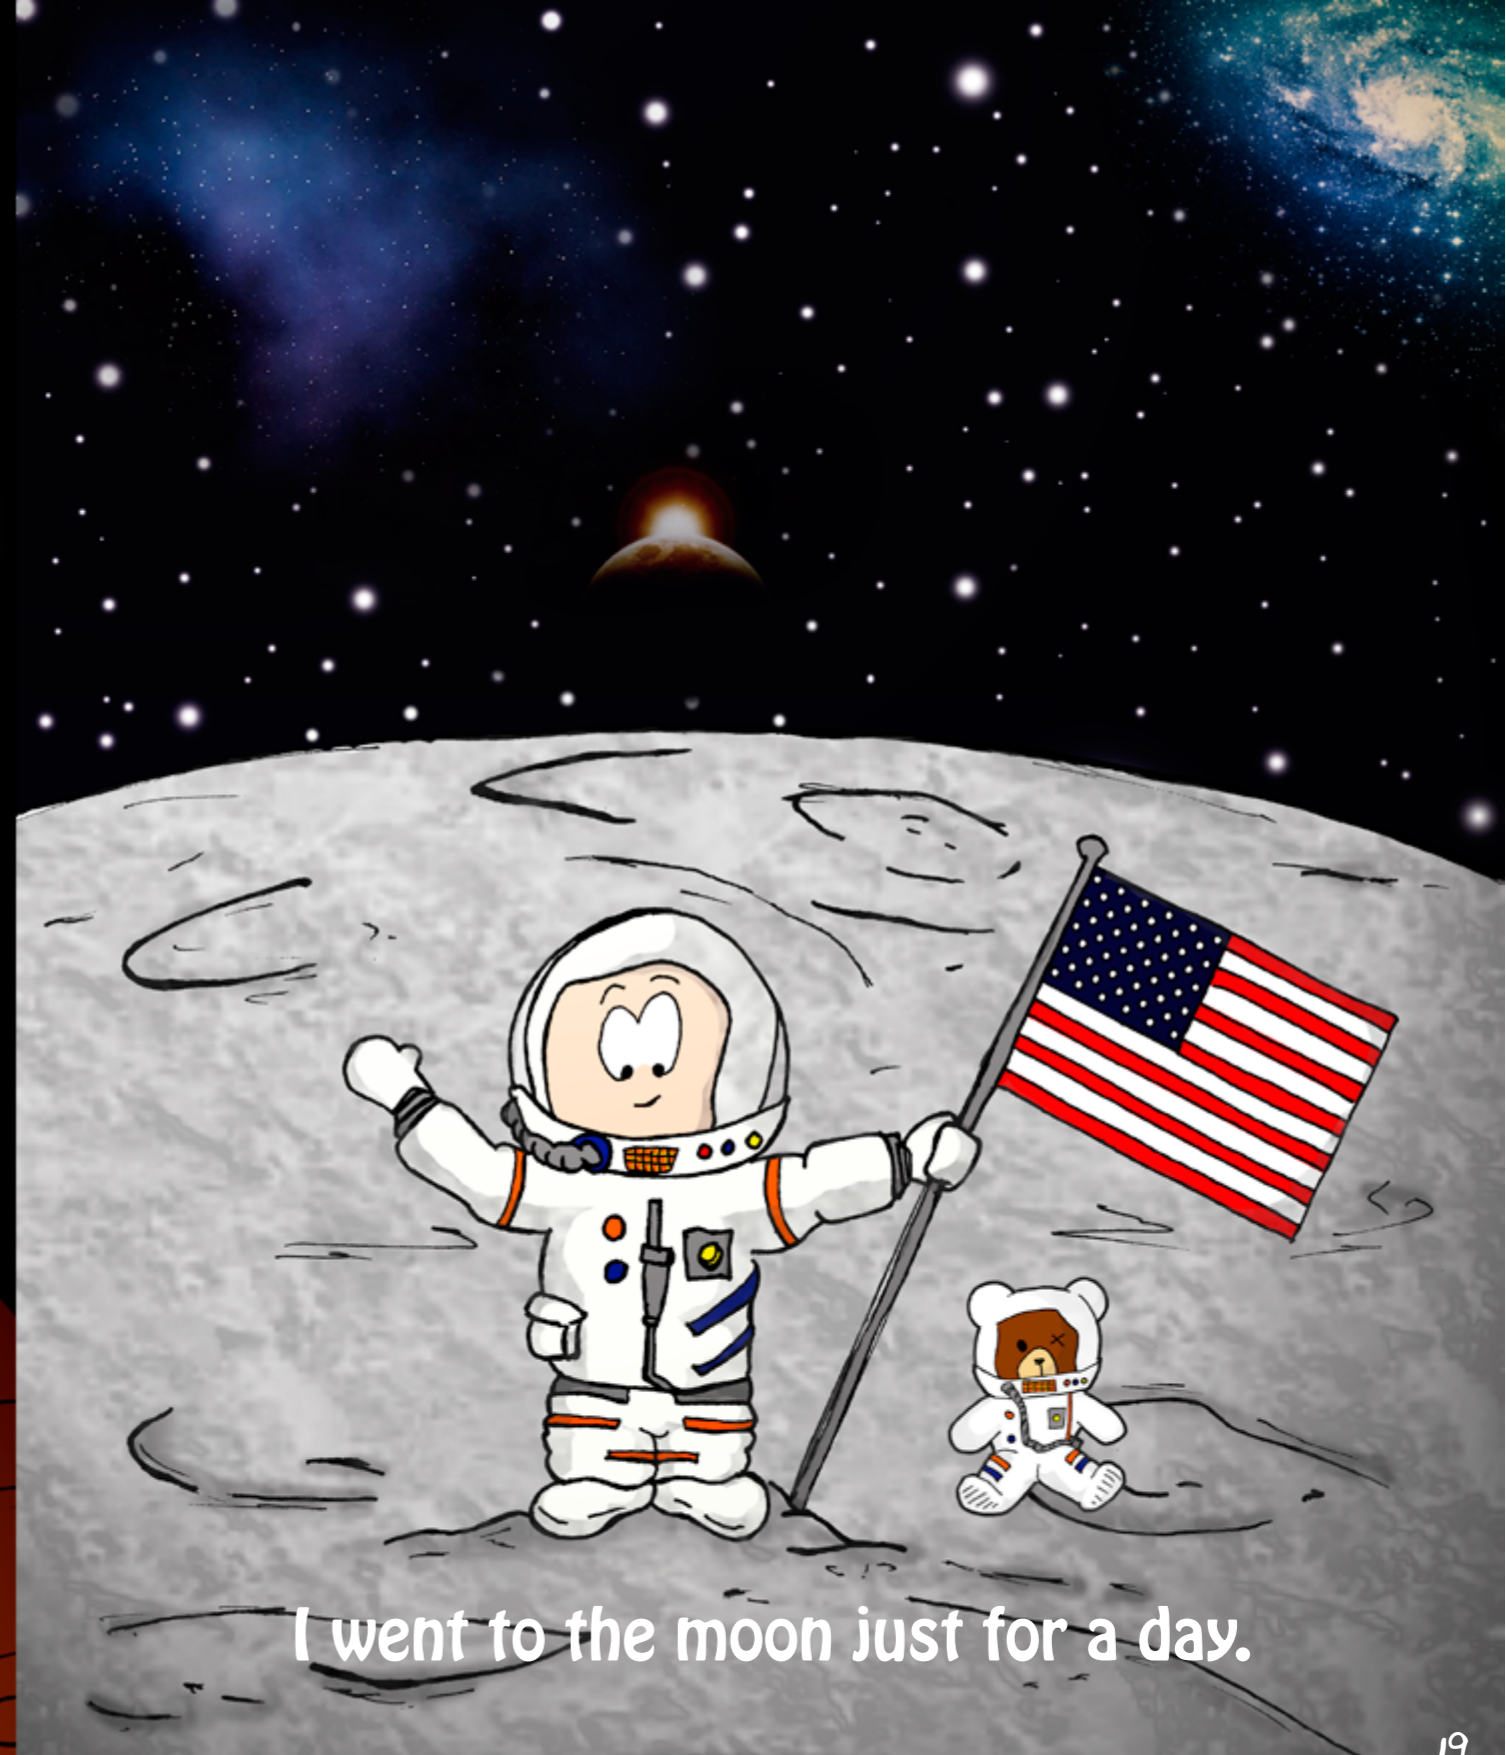

I fed the world with my mom's cakes.

I even saved a scared snake.

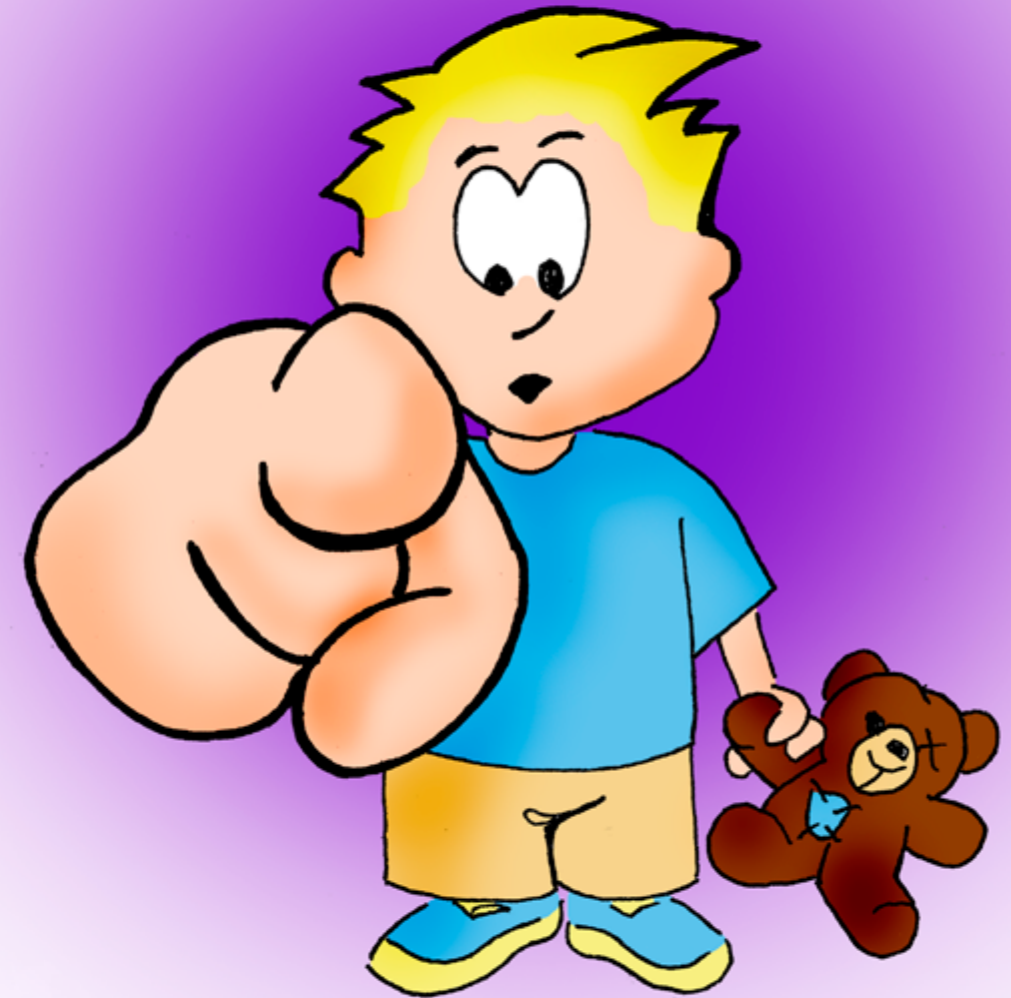

I went to the moon just for a day.

I also helped my friend's cold go away.

I wish you could see all the things I can see.

OH, WAIT!

YOU CAN!

You can dream like me!

SEE YOU LATER!
-Jojo
