

Though the sea is her home, up the beach she will climb. Tonight is real special. It is egg-laying time!

Sand dollars and starfish float up in the surf. They watch mama crawl by, on her way to give birth.

But the others are gone. At the start of the day, he crawls out of his nest, and he turns the wrong way!

He loves this new world, there is so much to see. Ladybug says, "Go back. Turn around to the sea!"

Into the blue water, the sea turtle goes. And guess what he finds? His mama's big nose!
