The Grandma Star

Written and Illustrated by

My grandma died, and I won't see her anymore.

My grandma sang a special lullaby to help me fall asleep at night. She sang about a bumblebee and buzzed into my ear. It tickled.

Then Grandma started snoring, which made me giggle. “Shhh,” Grandma said. “I’m sleeping.” And pretty soon, I was sleeping, too.

Tonight he takes my hand and leads me outside.

“Look up at the stars,” he says.

I bend my head back and see a thousand lights.
