

Every snowflake that has ever fallen to earth has been uniquely different. Not one over millions of years has ever been the same. The diversity of all that's been created is beyond quantifiable. We are Selves are expressions of creation. The Creator split it Self like a fractal to experience love in all its myriad forms and diverse expressions. God or the conscience expansion in Fractal Fluidic Space-Time is the fabric of the Multiverse. We humans on this planet are multidimensional light beings. And we are God having a human experience.

When we meditate we usually acknowledge the I AM presence as the Creator with in us and the Creator in everything. All energy is light, all light is energy. Even darkness. Everything is the Creator (Source, God, Quantum Cosmosis, Us, The Multiverse, The Omniverse, Omnipresence, Prime Creator, Supreme Being, All that is, Love, The Tetrahedron, The Yin/Yang, insert here with your own unique and creative description or symbol in any language). Everything is Creation. And you are a co-creator in this free will Universe.

These are some of the words we speak in our heads as we meditate. Everyone has variations. "I am or rather We are in the present moment of now in the space-time continuation of experiencing love in all it's myriad forms and diverse expressions." Or simply "I am in the present moment of now in the space-time continuum."

Here are some of my inner-voice, journal entries and guided meditations that divinely inspired the Three Decrees... and my own on going awakening.

1. ASCENSION PROCESS

June 2, 2015

Morning meditation. Activation

I was a gorilla, a bear, a terradactyl flying. I was a Greek soldier killing someone with a spear. I was a farmer walking in the fields next to the Nile river delta. I saw the waterfall at lake Victoria. Every life time was just as vivid as you and I sitting and talking to each other.

There is a chamber on a Mother ship with a group of us emanating energy around an oval table. We are each of a higher dimension with mostly a blue outline of a body. Beneath the table is a pool of purple wavy energy. Above us hanging over in the center is a giant crystal full of violet energy that flows into us. We are meditating on the energy to be sent down to Gaia's (Mother Earth) crystal core. It's a pool of love.

Then it comes to me. This Avatar, this Travis, this expression down to where I am meditating in the 3rd dimensional. The love wave, the violet energy form that I then send into Gaia's core and out into the world. And I see the wave merge with other love waves as it grows to encompass the globe. Now I root myself into Mother Earth as this violet love wave is flowing directly through me. I go back to my 5th dimensional Self, my higher self and start the process all over again. Which takes a long time for me to get the energy just right in this physical body.
