

Before this, I traveled to England. I lived there for many years and learned English. After a time, I missed my home in America. I returned later to be forced back to England. But I later escaped and made it back home.

13

Because I learned English in England, I was able to communicate with the Pilgrims when no other native American could. They were able to survive and live in the new land.

15

Did I do good?

You did great. You helped form the United States of America.

16

Will my people keep the land?

Your land will be home to many people.

17

That doesn't sound good for my people.

No I'm afraid not.
