MERRY BASTILLE DAY

Merry Bastille Day

The President said

Knowing little about it

And to where it led

The words to that old Marseillaise song

He never has read

Hey, was it that l'état c'est moi guy?

Or the après moi le déluge one instead?

Remember what happened the next day

He was quickly cut off from his head

So Merry Bastille Day to you, sir

To you sir, we all tip our hat

Merry Bastille Day to you, sir

You're certainly entitled to that.

THE TIME HAS COME, 2017

“The time has come,” the Walrus said,
“Here’s the only thing
Whose country is it, anyway
And who’s in the West Wing?”

“But wait a bit,” replied the R’s,
“Before we have our chat;
For some of us are out of breath,
And all of us got fat!”

“No hurry,” said the Mainstream Press.
They thanked them much for that.

“We weep for you.”
Now they say,
“We deeply sympathize.
With sobs and tears we’re sorting out
Corruption and Big Lies.”

“You can’t blame us,
The Mainstream Press
So sorry it’s too late
We didn’t print the dossier
Before November 8.”

“Although we knew, before that date,
That bad things had been done,
The hacking, then the SABOTAGE,
We could not spoil the fun.”

“Americans!” declare the R’s
“You’ve had a pleasant run
It’s Putin’s turn to rule you now
Your democracy is done.”
(Okay, not all. But almost every one.)

The heads of those with Russian ties
Are what we chiefly need
Plated, salted.
Or on a pike.
So very good indeed.
