

"Thank you, Zizou," said the Unicorn King with much delight.

"Today, you have shown me why I became the king of unicorns. Because of you, I remember what it means to be a unicorn again, and for this, I shall bestow upon you the sacred blessing of the unicorn and make you the first ever, Zebracorn."

For all the world to see, the Unicorn King placed his hand over Zizou's head and blessed him with the third and final Magical Shard of The Unicorn. Zizou was special and an inspiration to all future unicorns to be.

Everyone in the Starry Kingdom rejoiced for the newest member of their family – Zizou the Zebracorn. His passion, love, bravery, and will to never give up on his dream, made the difference.

The final shard, combined with the other two, granted Zizou with a lovely alicorn that glowed magenta in color. His wings also grew longer, which gave him the ability to fly across all the galaxies in the universe, and lastly, his black and white stripes turned into the stunning colors of a rainbow.

Zizou was truly grateful for everything and thanked the Unicorn King and all his unicorns in the Starry Kingdom for their belief in him. Then with a flap of his majestic wings – Zizou headed home back to Earth.

