Three Days of Darkness is a work of fiction. Any resemblance to actual events or persons, living or dead, is entirely coincidental. Character names are either fictitious or are used fictitiously. The Miracle of the Sun, the Miracle of Bernadette, Pope Leo XIII's Vision, and the Blessed Anna-Maria Taigi's Prophecy, however, were officially documented historical events. For this story, some of the details have been altered.

I would like to acknowledge my parents, Anibal and Adys, who raised their five children in the Catholic Church and instilled in us the foundation of our faith in God.

Thank you for providing life's essential values to bestow upon the precious buds of your family tree.

A special thanks to my cousins, Pilar, Elyn, Alex, and Alex' wife, Isbel, for their encouragement and support in this venture, my first critics.

INTRODUCTION

Satan, in his grand efforts toward world domination, has recruited an army of Satanists to serve the Prince of Darkness. The goal has been to create an apocalyptic event that would bring chaos into the world and test the beliefs of the Roman Catholic Church, which represents a sixth of the world's population and over half of all Christians.

The elite satanic hierarchy functions behind a supernatural, diabolical plan set to assume control of the papacy via sinister infiltrators to deceive the world's faithful into worshipping the Antichrist.

Where are these disciples? Their descendants surround us in everyday life, corrupting the sanctity of our peace. These evil and supernatural hybrids are merciless. They blend into our neighborhoods and mix with us in various professions in science, politics, education, religion, and the entertainment world. As they yearn for our souls, are we prepared for this battle?

In 1917, the Holy Virgin Mary appeared in front of a young shepherd girl and gave her a message to warn the world that an evil force was lurking and conspiring to destroy our beliefs and our Church. The "Three Days of Darkness" were approaching, and they would lead the world to its Armageddon by discrediting the words of Our Lady. The spectacular event witnessed by many at Fátima in 1917 took place as the world rocked into the twentieth century with two world wars, genocide, the invention of the atomic bomb, and the rapid rise of technologies that transformed the world and the human race.

On May 14, 2015, Father Dwight Longenecker published “Francis, Fatima and the End of the World,” in which he wrote:

It was confirmed that Pope Francis II had planned a trip to Fátima for the one hundredth anniversary of the Marian apparitions. What was the Pope’s understanding of the message of Fátima, and why did the Virgin of Fátima seem so important to him, as she was to his two predecessors?

Our world is coming to an end because we are destroying ourselves through war, violence, and terrorism. Our families are being torn apart with contraception, sterilization, abortion, and divorce. Our purity and innocence are decaying with pornography, promiscuity, lust, and rage. Our society is poisoned with greed, materialism, and disregard for the poor, and our environment is disappearing with overdevelopment and pollution. We are, in essence, the reason for the end of our world.

In 1884, Pope Leo XIII had a revelation. During his extraordinary vision, Satan said that if he had one hundred years, he would be able to destroy the Church. When the aged Pontiff had finished celebrating mass in his private Vatican chapel, he suddenly stopped at the foot of the altar. The Pope stood there for about ten minutes, as if in a trance, his face ashen white. He explained that he suddenly overheard two voices having the following conversation:

Satan: "I can destroy your Church."

Our Lord: "You can? Then go ahead and do so."

Satan: "To do so, I need more time and more power."

Our Lord: "How much time? How much power?"

Satan: "A hundred years and greater power over those who will give themselves over to my service."

Our Lord: "You have the time, you will have the power, and I will back my followers."

No one knows when the hundred years of power began.

* * *

In 1917, the war was still going strong, and Our Lady of Fátima appeared, warning us about the evil that would arise if people failed to change their lives. It is why the world is in such chaos, and precarious leaders are so arrogant and bold.

The Marian apparitions ended with the Miracle of the Sun on October 13th, 1917. Could these meaningful signs from Heaven suggest the beginning of the one hundred years? Was the Pope's visit to Fátima in 2017 more than a simple centenary celebration?

As the Holy Father planned to visit Fátima in 2017, was there something we should have known? The strength of our faith will determine the fate of our souls.
