ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I will always be truly grateful to you all, my wonderful family.
I thank each of you for always being there for me.

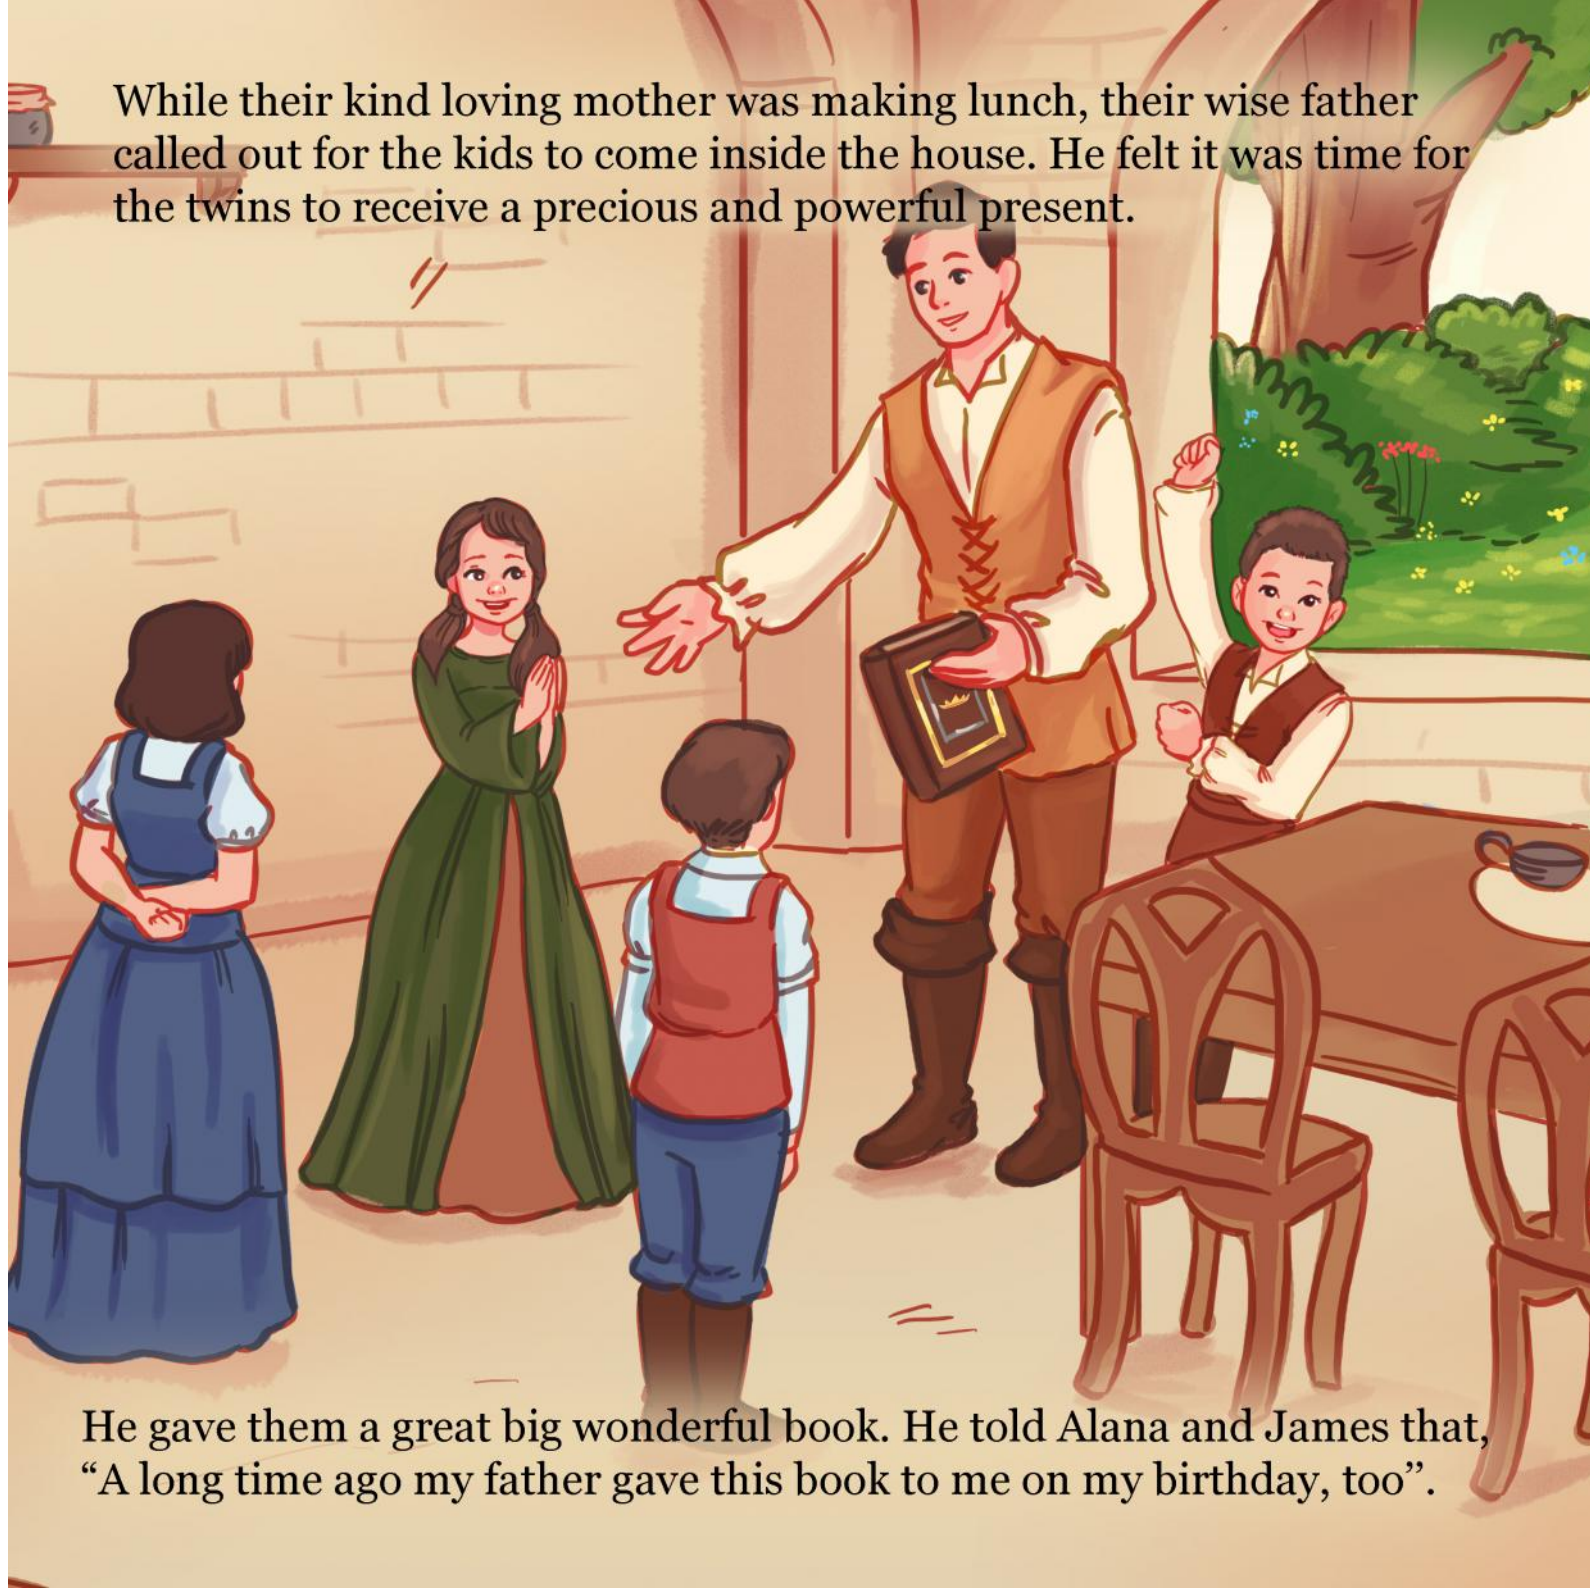

I have had to depend on each of you at different times, and you have helped to uplift me and to keep me focused. Your love and constant encouragement throughout my life has inspired me to write “The Kids Book Club of Power”.

To our twins: our hearts have been filled with joy ever since you were born. This book was written for you from our heart. We thank God every day for the glory and the blessings in the gifts given to our family.

On a warm spring day in May, the twins James and Alana were celebrating their birthday playing with their cousins Lilliana & Noah in the garden.

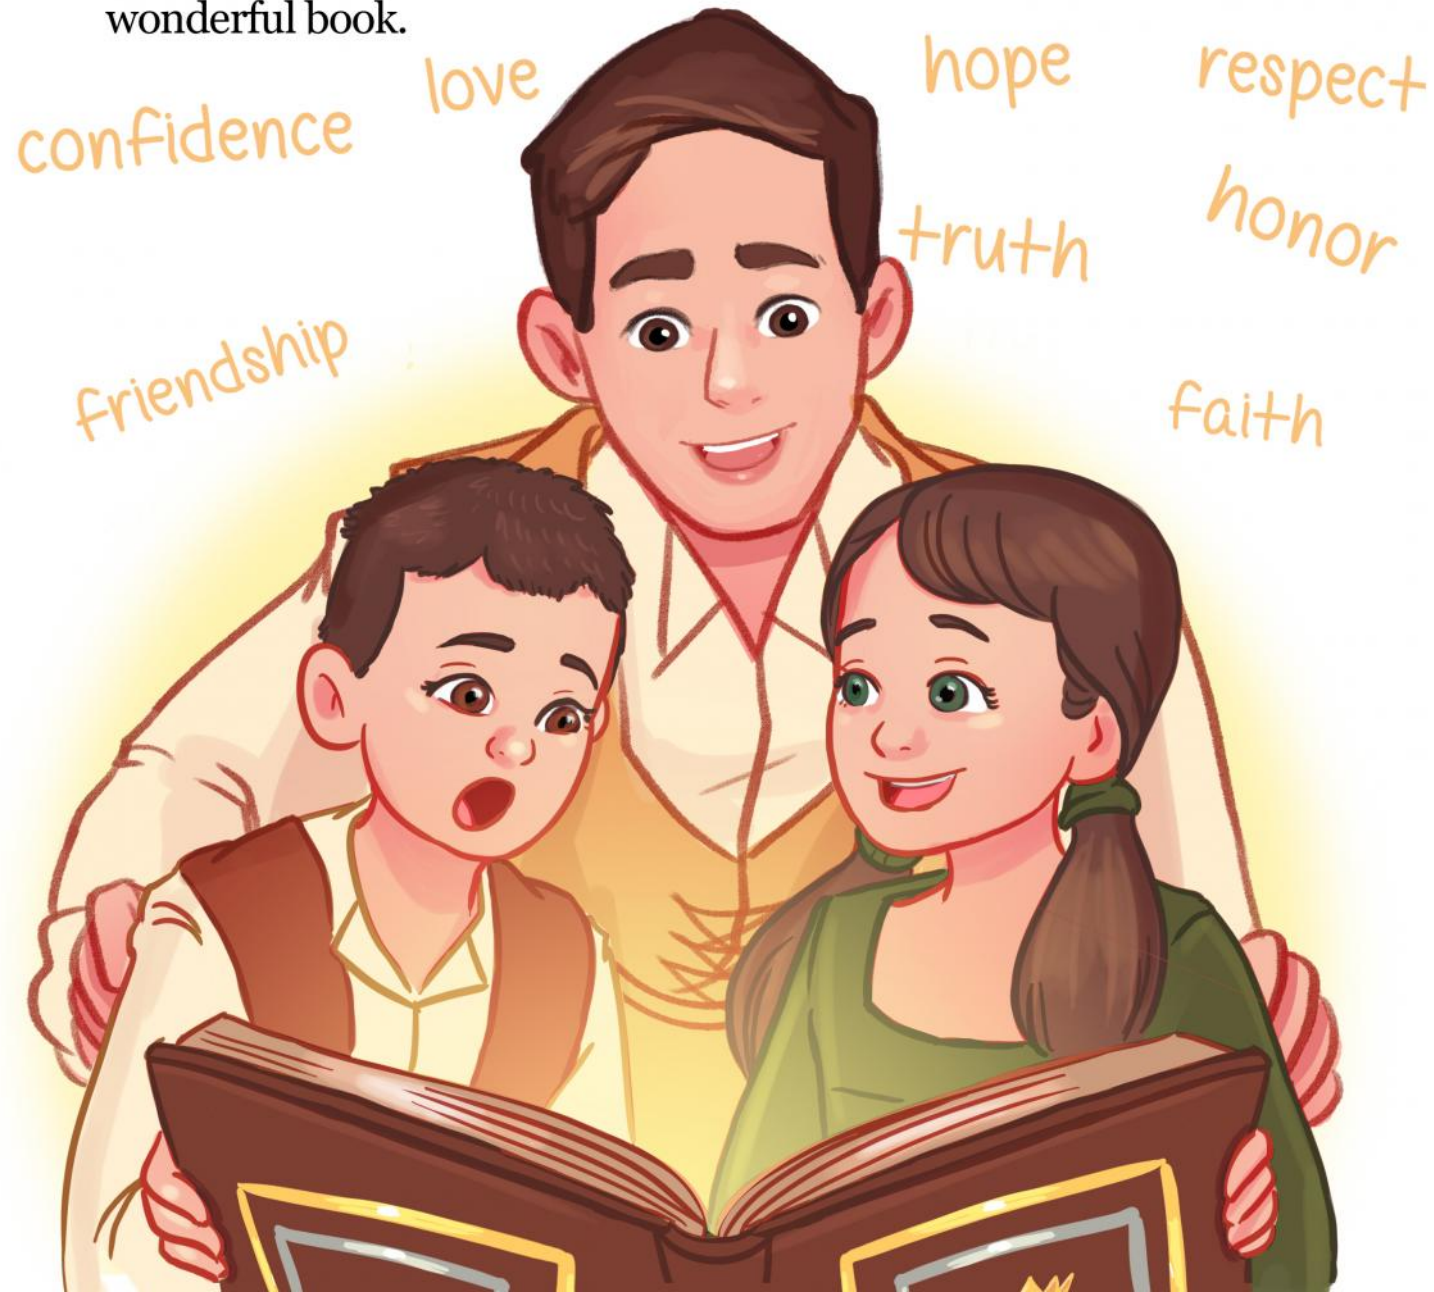

While their kind loving mother was making lunch, their wise father called out for the kids to come inside the house. He felt it was time for the twins to receive a precious and powerful present.

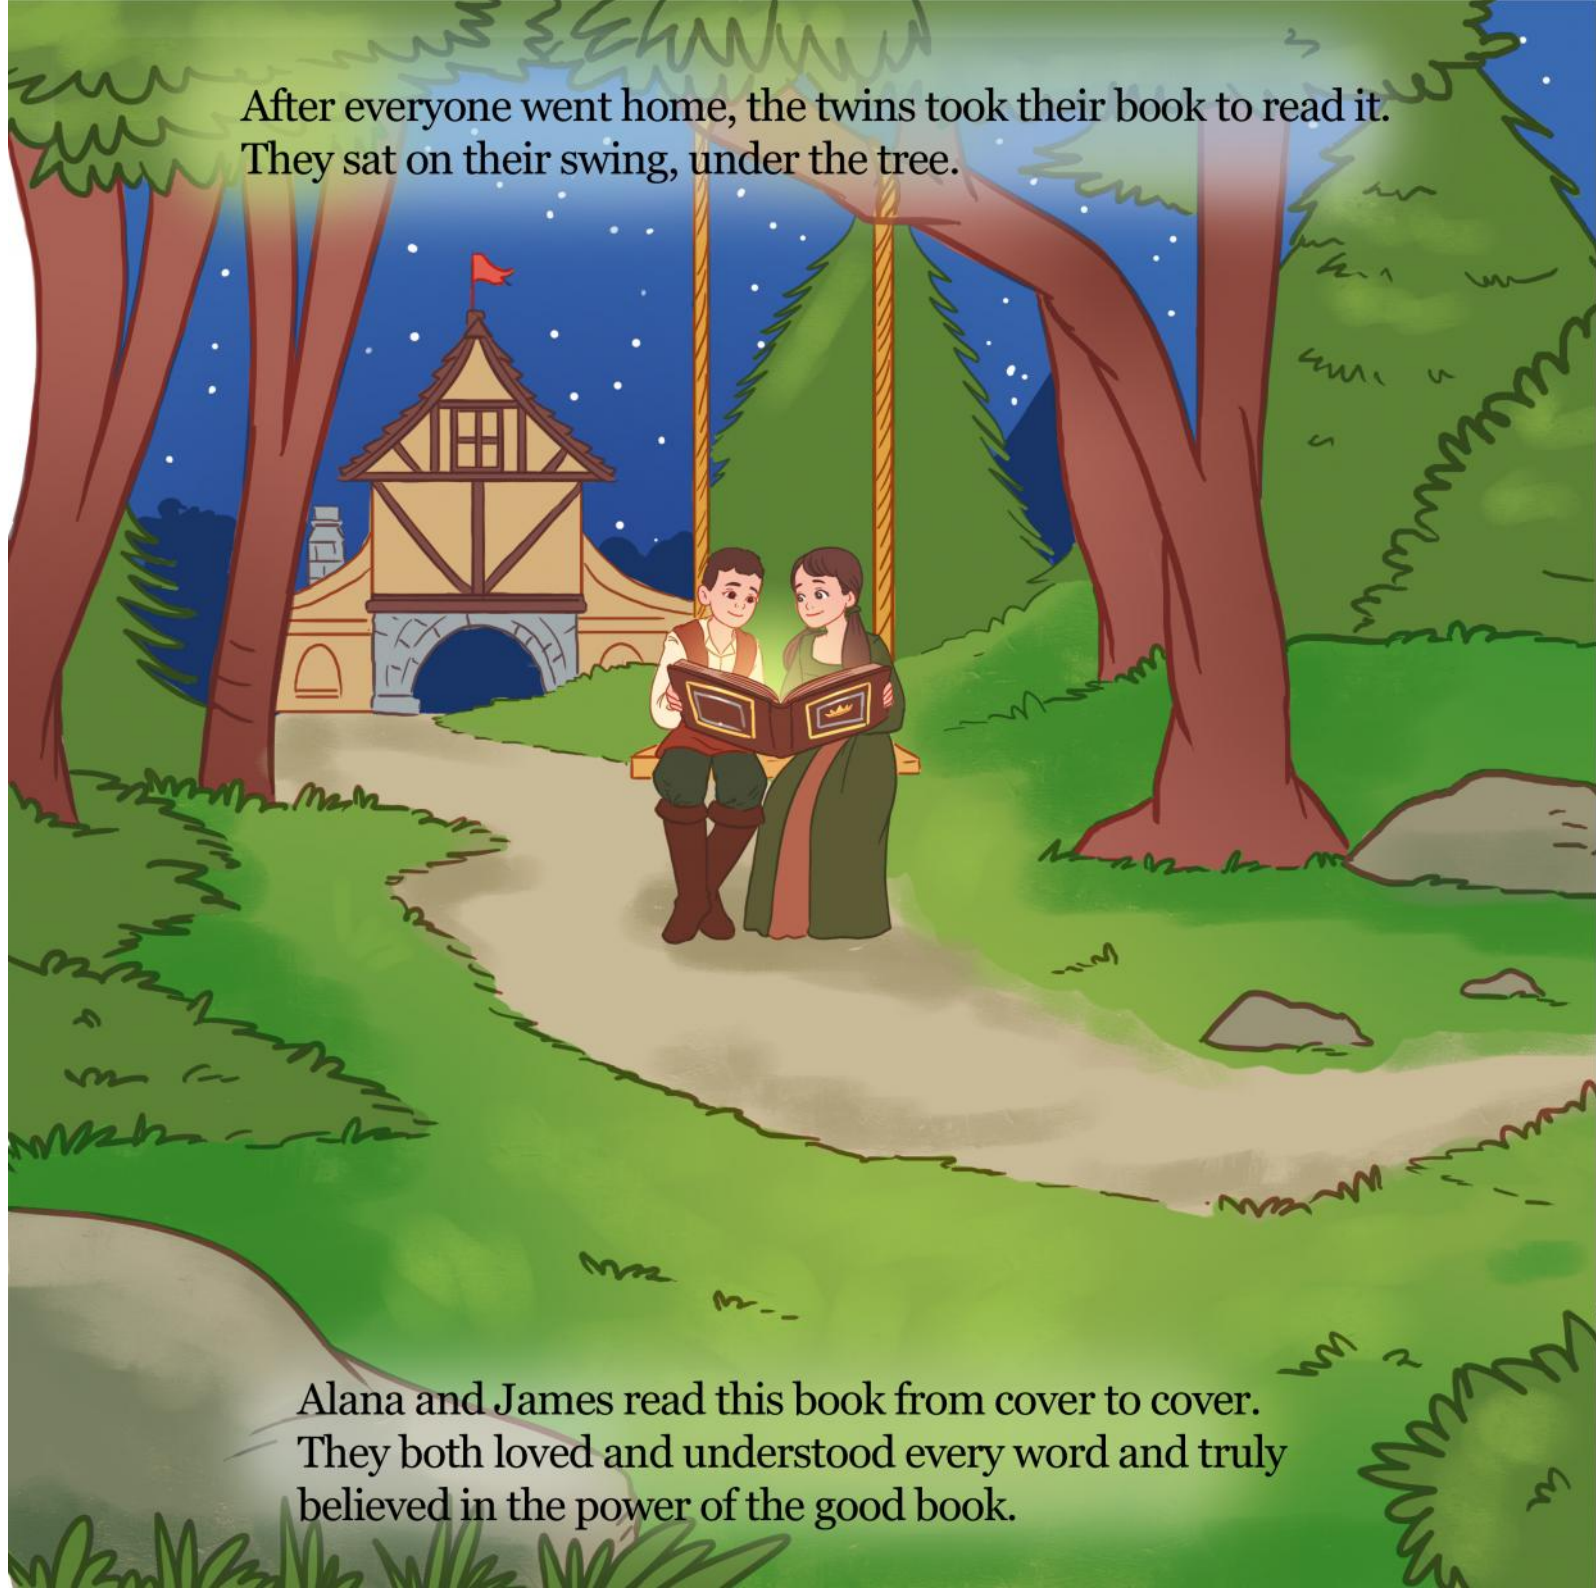

He gave them a great big wonderful book. He told Alana and James that, “A long time ago my father gave this book to me on my birthday, too”.

He then said: "and now it's your turn to share in the power of the good book". He explained to them that this book had the good word, and that if they truly believed in the word, they could obtain great powers. James and Alana were so excited to read this wonderful book.

After everyone went home, the twins took their book to read it.
They sat on their swing, under the tree.

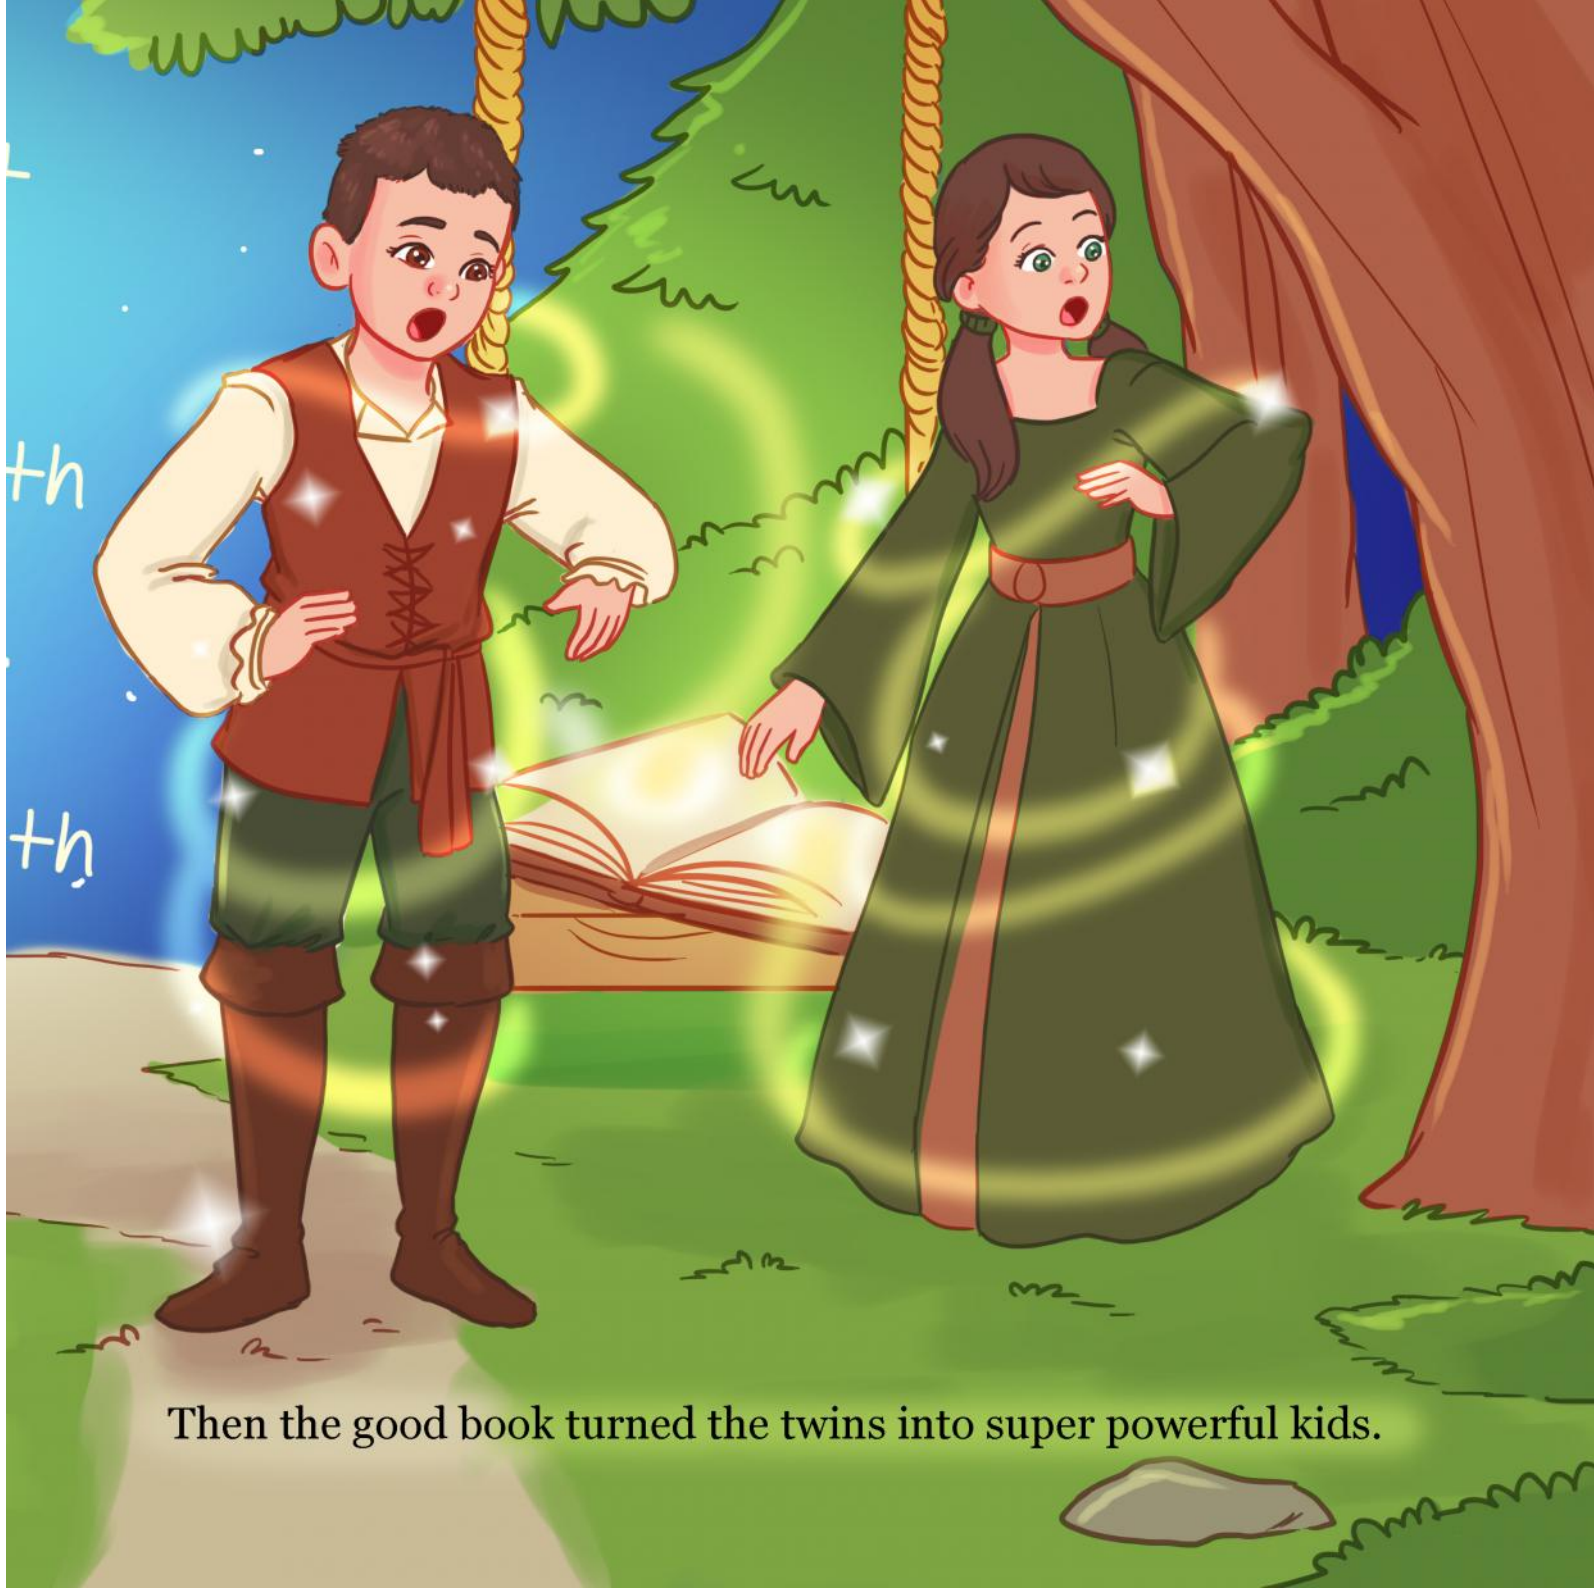

Alana and James read this book from cover to cover.
They both loved and understood every word and truly believed in the power of the good book.

James and Alana started to feel their new magical powers growing.

Then the good book turned the twins into super powerful kids.

Alana and James received so much power, they could now move mountains with their minds.

James and Alana now had power to help other kids to make better choices for their lives.

Alana and James now had the power to speak in different languages to bring harmony onto our earth.

But, most importantly, the good word of the book gave James and Alana the key to obtaining an endless life.

Word spread, and the naughty wizard Meroo heard about this book and its powers. Meroo did not want harmony on this earth. He wanted all the kids to be naughty like him.

Meroo wanted to destroy the good book and he thought about how to capture the book.

Meroo decided to make a naughty potion. He mixed some herbs and made a magical liquid. He put a few drops of the liquid inside two chocolate chip cookies. He knew that all kids love to eat chocolate chip cookies.

Meroo found out that Alana and James went to the bakery in the morning to get bread for their family. Meroo went early to the bakery the next day and waited for the kids. He saw them coming to the bakery. Meroo then magically changed himself to look like the baker.

Alana and James did not know that he was really Meroo. Meroo gave them the bread for their family and the two free chocolate chip cookies. James and Alana loved the chocolate chip cookies and they ate them right away. They both quickly fell into a deep sleep and started to snore.

Meroo immediately tried to take the book, but the book was too powerful.
The good book did not want to go with the naughty wizard.

The powers of the book suddenly woke up Alana and James from their sleep.

James and Alana then used their new powers on the naughty wizard Meroo. Meroo was overcome by their powers. He started to cry and said that he was sorry.

Then Meroo told Alana and James his life story. It turned out that he did not really want to be naughty. Meroo just had no family, he was an orphan and he had no one to tell him about the good book.

Their new powers helped James and Alana to see that Meroo needed a family. They told their parents about Meroo's sad story and asked if Meroo could live with them. Their parents had read the good book too. They also had the power and felt for Meroo. They agreed to care for Meroo.

Meroo was very happy and celebrated with Alana and James.
All three kids read daily from the good book.

Meroo suddenly stopped being a naughty wizard and became a good boy.

James and Alana wanted to help everyone on this earth to get the good power. So the twins created the most powerful club on the planet: THE KIDS BOOK CLUB OF POWER.

The Kids Book Club of Power is for all kids who want to get the power to help others and help save our earth.

The new beginning is now!

Dedication

This book is dedicated to my perfect twins Alana and James,
with special thanks to my darling wife,
my supportive mother and my beloved father.
