

Synopsis

The book chronicles end-time events based on Christian eschatology.

In this work, the author has made every effort to limit the text in this book to three main categories. The content of this book, he maintains, is either history, prophecy or theology.

HISTORY

Writings that fall under this heading include historical facts or findings, scientific data or information, and any other compilation made by man that has been established out of a non-Biblical perspective. This includes any factual information that cannot be substantiated by scripture.

PROPHECY

This includes all the writings of the prophets, and any text translated out of the original Greek and Hebrew scriptures. This category also includes every scripture quoted verbatim, chapter and verse, from the Bible.

THEOLOGY

This includes all writings where two or more scriptures have been used to draw a conclusion or when the author renders the interpretation of a particular prophecy or a series of scriptures. This also includes text where the author has theorized to make a point or when the text being read is a paraphrase of scripture.
