

Once upon a time in the small city of Bethlehem lived a very wealthy old man by the name of Christmas. He was mean and grumpy, and he lived by himself. No one knew if he'd ever had any family, for he was always seen alone. He lived a dull and eventless life until one unforgettable night when everything changed forever.