

Excerpts FOR THE LOVE OF ELLA

“...I have learned a few truths in my life. One of them is when you want something, you must weigh carefully whether people get hurt in the process, especially innocents, and whether it is worth it to get what you want.”

“...truth always has a way of rising to the surface like cream on milk.”

“Everyone should be proud of who they are, no matter who they are.”

Ella. A tie that binds. Aurette chose love.
