

This Book
Belongs To:
.....

I watched the sunset

I told a lie

I received a letter in the mail

Someone yelled at me

I learned to tie my shoe

I stubbed my toe

I learned how to fly a kite

I couldn't find my toy

The rain ruined our plans

I heard something I didn't understand

I had a movie night with popcorn

I played a new game

The thunderstorm was scary

Fox and Bear

Written by Lauren Reese and Rebecca Rose Moody

Illustrated by Lauren Reese

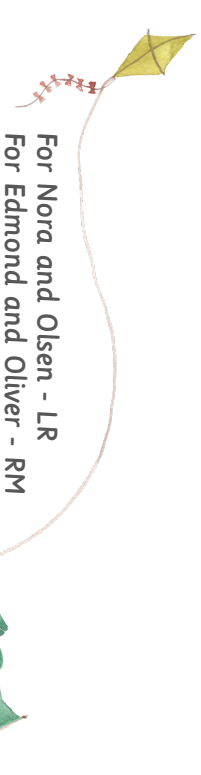

The artwork in this book was rendered in watercolor and gouache.

The type in this book was set in Sassoon Montessori Medium.

Copyright © 2020 by Lauren Reese and Rebecca Moody

All rights reserved. Thank you for buying an authorized edition of this book and for complying with copyright laws by not reproducing, scanning, or distributing any part of it in any form without permission.

For Nora and Olsen - LR
For Edmond and Oliver - RM

Learn more about the creators of this book:

Laurenmichelereese.com

Rebeccarosemoody.com

Fox loved Bear and Bear loved Fox.

Bear told great stories and gave sweet hugs. Bear was warm and kind. Fox felt safe with Bear. Bear was Fox's home.

Fox grew older and was ready to go on adventures, so Bear gave Fox a backpack.

“You can keep all your memories inside here. Some will be golden, like the sun. They will make you smile. Others might feel sad and heavy.”

Fox felt nervous and excited. Fox was ready for new adventures, but still wished Bear could come along.