

Friendship has no Color

By: Christopher Gordon

This journey shows the true meaning of, friendship has no color. Max, being the new kid at school, is made fun of because his appearance is different. His friends Emily, Timothy and Billy defend him but unfortunately their efforts fall short in convincing the other kids to play a game of soccer with them.

This all changes when... the Warrior of Good Values appears! Would it be enough support, to convince the other kids that they were wrong?

Being uniquely different and embracing each other's differences, help us understand that even though we may look different on the outside, we are all the same on the inside.
