

Daisy May is the sweetest angel of a dog, who loves all living creatures. She lives with her human on a farm just outside of town, where she laughs and plays with all her farm animal buddies. One beautiful day, she leaves home to visit her good friend, who lives just down the trail from her. Together they meet several new friends and have the time of their lives. The group continues their journey and heads to the park, but along the way, they discover that the world may not be ready for their friendship. Daisy May must do whatever she can to protect her new friends and the special bond that they have forged.
