

A BLACK GIRL'S TRUTH

"The truth holds no lies, lies are what tie you down and trap your mind alive. Life can rise over most of the things we say. We can hide our troubles with honesty, but a lie will always catch on. The truth is the only thing that will set you free. I didn't believe that with people. In this life, we will all face many questions, and sometimes we won't feel the answers. How do you know the difference between what's real and what's false? How do you know when you are a victim or what's the hardest part about yourself? Every story, every hope, and every word has a purpose. But again, the past was like me again on the water. Take them not only my eyes, but my heart, and even the words are written for all to see, not just me, only readers, not just the answers to your own questions."
